Sexual desire and orgasm are all about energy. In Shamanic Tantra you will learn:

- Nine shamanic practices to intensify your energies and your sexual experience.
- How to energetically merge with, or become "One" with, another person.
- How to develop and train your energy to function in similar ways shamans use.
- Gain an understanding of our energetic anatomy and the different types of orgasm.
- Experience a deep sense of Oneness with all Beings.

There is no nudity or explicit sex. Also, this class does not perform or teach traditional Native American ceremonies.

Kenneth Ray Stubbs, Ph.D.

Ray came to understand energy from Native American medicine people, or shamans. While in ceremony with them and after receiving their healings, he sensed something deeper was happening energetically than in most of the somatic and psychological modalities he had already experienced. As Ray developed his own abilities to perceive energies, he realized that the medicine people were literally able to radiate, expand, extend, and resonate their energies with him.

Ray is the creator of the recently released Shaman Cards. Subtitled Ceremonies for Energy and Wisdom, they provide a set of ceremonies for individuals to deepen their spiritual development. He also produced the teaching documentary Path of the Sexual Shaman and is the author of The Essential Tantra.

On a shamanic path for over two decades, Ray is a 13-year SunDancer and has been greatly influenced by Tibetan Buddhism. Via Skype, he now gives individual sessions and trainings on energy, sexuality, and shamanism.
